

Ongoing Member Training Roundtable Discussion Questions

- 1) Does your coop offer an organized New Member Orientation of some kind? Is there regular training for members of the co-op to learn about new policies or procedures?

- 2) Does your coop have a process for training members and officers to do labor tasks or fill officer roles?

- 3) Does your coop host skillshares or workshops on topics not directly related to the coop?

- 4) Does your coop host skillshares or workshops that are open to the public?

- 5) Does your coop invite local professors, educators, or presenters from outside to speak at the coop? How are educational opportunities advertised?

- 6) Does your coop use meeting time to host educational items for members?

- 7) Does your coop host any online educational resources for your members?

- 8) Does your coop use exit interviews to find out what members found confusing, so that future members get training to clear that up?

- 9) Who is responsible for coordinating educational opportunities?

- 10) How do you make training opportunities accessible to members? For example, holding trainings during meetings? At each house? In place of meetings?
